Please let us go back to the time when no telemarketers were interrupting us. I have never and will never respond to their requests. Their calls are just a waste of their and my time.